D'Agostino Breaks Ground on Town Center Prof. Plaza

Developer To Deliver 25,140-SF, Class B Office Building in February 2008

D'Agostino Cos. broke ground on the 25,140-square-foot office building called Town Center Professional Plaza. The delivery date is set for February 2008.

The Town Center Professional Plaza will be on Nugent and Pacific Street in downtown Conroe, and is being developed by D'Agostino to meet the need and demand for high-end professional office spaces. The property will be made up of three buildings. The first building will be 10,000 square feet and the next two will each be 7,500 square feet. Building I has been preleased by Bleyl & Associates.

Chris D'Agostino is handling the leasing and F. D. Freeman & Associates is the architect for the project.
